A woman in a red one-piece swimsuit is floating on her back in a small, curved swimming pool. The pool has a dark blue tiled border and a light blue tiled interior. The pool is surrounded by lush tropical vegetation, including large green leaves and a woven basket hanging from a branch. In the background, there is a wooden deck with a table and chairs, and a thatched roof structure. The overall scene is serene and relaxing.

unique moments
